When are you available? Adult chaperones are needed every Friday to help with the children in the VYC & Red Lion Gym. When you arrive you will be assigned to a duty. Kitchen, sign in/out/gym/hallway monitor/bathroom - 1st floor monitor of games, machines, watch students in all areas of the VYC. Safety & security of all children in the Center is our #1 concern.

Duties: As an adult volunteer for our organization you are responsible for the younger children as well as the High School Students attending the VYC. We monitor everyone, guide them and make sure they have a good experience at the VYC. Safety & security is #1. We will ask that your cell phone is on your belt or on high so that if contact needs to be made you can be reached. All other personal calls, we ask to please be kept limited during your time with us. All eyes, ears & full awareness is where we all need to be at when volunteering at the VYC. This can be a pleasant & wonderful experience. Also, please keep personal conversations to a limit. The children over hear things and the focus is to be watching them.

Shifts - sign up for a shift or help us the whole day. Anything time you can give is greatly appreciated. It takes a village and we need you!
